

Personnel Change in Prinovis Sales Management

Prinovis Sales Manager Dieter Simon will leave the company on his own initiative in early 2008. Upon his resignation, his responsibilities will be taken over by Jürgen Freier. Freier is the former Managing Director Marketing and Distribution of Meiller Direct (a Schlott Group company until mid-2007). Before that, he held a number of management positions at Heidelberger Druckmaschinen as well as Gruner + Jahr. During the transition period, Dieter Simon will continue to support the company as a consultant.

"We thank Dieter Simon for his dedicated, committed work during the consolidation of the individual printing plants into Prinovis, as well as for his entrepreneurial contribution to the establishment of the company during the past years," said Prinovis CEO Stephan Krauss. "And we wish Jürgen Freier success with the tasks and challenges the future holds in store."
