

Martin Kewitsch takes over as the Prinovis Group's new Director of HR

Martin Kewitsch, 41, takes over as the Prinovis Group's new Director of HR from 1 September 2009. The position has been vacant for several months and is currently filled on an acting basis by Gernot Brenscheidt, 47, in addition to his responsibilities as head of Human Resources Development at Prinovis. Brenscheidt will report to Martin Kewitsch in future.

After earning a degree in psychology from the Ruhr University in Bochum, Kewitsch began his career as a personnel officer at Raab Karcher Wärmetechnik. After working as personnel manager at Ingersoll-Rand, he joined the Handelsblatt publishing group in 1999, where he became head of HR. In 2005, he went freelance, setting up a HR consulting and services firm.

Thorsten Thiel: „Martin Kewitsch possesses a long expertise in HR Management and in several industries. I am glad that I convince win him to join us and wish him all the best. I would like to thank Gernot Brenscheidt for taking over the responsibilities on an acting basis during that challenging time.”
